Dear Dir. Almeda:

Thank you for expressing your guidance and support in the Seminar-Workshop on K12 Curriculum Updates and Pedagogy for Grade 9 Teachers, slated to be held on May 14-16, 2014. As proponents of the said workshop, we are genuinely excited to spearhead an activity that will shed light on the trends, processes and issues in K to 12 as transition and innovation in Philippine Education for Filipino teachers and academic managers of secondary schools.

However, due to the inability of a sufficient delegation to attend the workshop, with utmost regret, we must inform you that the Seminar-Workshop on K12 Curriculum Updates and Pedagogy for Grade 9 Teachers will be rescheduled on July 16-18, 2014 from 8:30am-5pm at TÜV Rheinland Philippines office in Makati City. This is to ensure that the said Seminar-Workshop will remain true to its objectives of the providing a venue for the vigorous exchange of ideas and experiences as well as dissemination of up-to-date information about K to 12 Basic Education Program specifically for Grade 9 Teachers.

Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience this may cause. We will continue to be in communication with you for any developments and updates about the Seminar-Workshop on K to 12 Curriculum Updates and Pedagogy for Grade 9 Teachers. You may also opt to contact us at 02 812 8887, or via our email addresses at ronaldo.daracan@tuv.com and ralph.blay@tuv.com. Rest assured that we highly value the trust you placed in us, as we will work hard to bring you a Seminar-Workshop that is truly worthwhile and enriching.

Thank you very much.

Respectfully,
