DepEd, Meralco Avenue, Pasig City

Dear Mr. Deriquito:

Ayala Land will once again celebrate Philippine Independence this year focusing on the theme of Filipino Ingenuity. The celebration will also be a tribute Apolinario Mabini's sesquicentennial birth Anniversary. This will be held at Ayala Triangle Gardens on June 11 where we will unveil an artistic rendition of Philippine flag inspired by stylized wind chimes and a tribute exhibit to Mabini.

The Philippine Wind Chime Flag will be displayed at Ayala Triangle Gardens until the 31st of July together with the exhibit, which is divided into ten uniquely-designed stations featuring illustrations of the principles of Mabini's El Verdadero Decalogo or Ang Tunay na Dekalogo – a code of ethics on the love of God, country, and neighbor penned by the Sublime Paralytic.

In line with this, we would like to once again invite the Department of Education to partner with us by bringing in different elementary and high school students in Metro Manila to visit the Philippine Wind Chime Flag and The Mabini Exhibit as part of their learning. Ayala Land is partnering with World of Outbound that will handle the educational discussion and engagement with the students.

We look forward to your usual support and favorable response. The participating schools may contact our Frances Gacho at 0917-830-1524 and slmgmarketing.asst@ayalaland.com.ph.

Thank you very much.

Very Truly Yours,

Leonard H. Grape
