Dear Superintendent Ladines:

Greetings!

The Office of the Ombudsman (OMB) extends its gratitude for allowing the participation of Ms. Teresita B. Atencio, Hi-way Hills Integrated School and Ms. Melanie I. Parcon, Pedro P. Cruz Elementary School, your Division, to the Focus Group Discussion (FGD) held on 08 April 2014 at the OMB, to review the modules of the Graft and Corruption Prevention Education Teaching Exemplars (GCPE TE), as to their usefulness and relevance in the present elementary curriculum, among others, after their integration in the Makabayan subjects of public elementary and secondary levels were sanctioned by DepEd Memorandum Circular No. 237 issued in 2007.

During said FGD, all the teachers, including the above-named, shared invaluable insights on the modules under review and made recommendations on their improvement and harmonization in the present curriculum and teaching methodologies being observed by DepEd.

In the light of the recommendations of the teachers, the Office hereby requests to allow MS. TERESITA B. ATENCIO to conduct a teaching demonstration using the improved/harmonized module assigned to her. Further, to allow all the above-named teachers to observe other teaching demonstrations to be conducted by teachers of other Divisions. Attached is the Schedule of teaching demonstrations containing the names of demonstration teachers with their assigned modules and names of teachers acting as observers.

Please be informed that aside from the teachers of other Divisions, all teaching demonstrations, including the ones to be conducted by your Division, will be observed by the representatives of OMB's Community Coordination Bureau which is in-charge of the monitoring of the implementation of the GCPE TE program.

For further concerns on the subject matter, please coordinate with GIO Lourdes L. Estonanto at telephone number 926-8780 or AGIO Cristina U. Cabrera at telephone number 426-7748.
