Dear Dir. Almeda,

It's celebration time once more for all our teachers! We are celebrating the National Teachers' Month (NTM) beginning September 5, 2014, which culminates on October 5, 2014 as the World Teachers' Day. In partnership with the Metrobank Foundation as the initiator of this annual celebration, the CFC Educational Foundation, Inc. (a service provider of the Department of Education Adopt-A-School Program), is calling on all public and private school educators to a gathering of meaningful learning.

With the theme, "TEACHER, TEACHER, WHAT STUFF ARE YOU MADE OF?", this half-day event aims to address the issue on how we, as educators, play a crucial role in the character development of those entrusted to our care. The points to be discussed are likewise in response to our government's call for moral recovery, and how educational institutions play a major influence and impact in this undertaking.

This seminar is for FREE. It will be held on September 20, 2014, 8:00AM to 12:00PM at the Bulwagan ng Karunungan of the Department of Education Main Office, Ortigas Avenue, Pasig (near Ultra). Registration starts at 7:30AM.

The speakers are Dr. Riza L. Bondal and Dr. Esther J. Esteban, professors from the University of Asia and the Pacific School of Education and Human Development.

Through your office, we are hoping that educators will be encouraged to come together and appreciate their role in the total development of the learners.

Limited slots available. Schools are requested to confirm the number of participants on or before August 20, 2014. Please call us at (02)7182213 and (02) 7230261. Kindly look for Maricel Montilla, Sharra Mae Domingo, Myra Menguito, or Mimi David.

Thank you and we are excited to see you all.

Truly yours,

Naomi A. David
