Dear Dir. Almeda:

Thank you for expressing your guidance and support in the Seminar-Workshop on K12 Curriculum Updates and Pedagogy for Grade 9 Teachers, slated to be held on July 16-18, 2014. As proponents of the said workshop, we are genuinely excited to spearhead an activity that will shed light on the trends, processes and issues in K to 12 as transition and innovation in Philippine Education for Filipino teachers and academic managers of secondary schools.

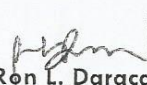

However, due to the unfavorable weather condition brought about by the typhoon "Glenda" that almost hit the entire Luzon island last July 16, with utmost regret, we must inform you that the Seminar-Workshop on K12 Curriculum Updates and Pedagogy for Grade 9 Teachers will be rescheduled on August 6-8, 2014 from 8:30am-5pm at TÜV Rheinland Philippines Office in Makati City. This is to ensure that the said Seminar-Workshop will remain true to its objectives of the providing a venue for the vigorous exchange of ideas and experiences as well as dissemination of up-to-date information about K to 12 Basic Education Program specifically for Grade 9 Teachers.

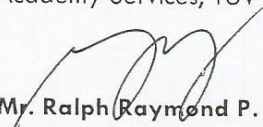

Prior to this letter, we also informed the participants from different schools on the event postponement through calls and text messages.

Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience this may cause. We will continue to be in communication with you for any developments and updates about the Seminar-Workshop on K to 12 Curriculum Updates and Pedagogy for Grade 9 Teachers. You may also opt to contact us at 02 812 8887, or via our email addresses at ronaldo.daracan@tuv.com and ralph.blay@tuv.com. Rest assured that we highly value the trust you placed in us, as we will work hard to bring you a Seminar-Workshop that is truly worthwhile and enriching.

Thank you very much.

Respectfully yours,
