Re: Request for teachers to act as Observers/Evaluators on the scheduled regional teaching demonstrations on the modules of the GCPE Teaching Exemplars

Dear Superintendent Losaria:

Greetings!

The Office of the Ombudsman (OMB) extends its gratitude for your continuous support in the implementation of the regional teaching demonstrations of the Graft and Corruption Prevention Education Teaching Exemplars (GCPE TE) and for allowing Mr. Joseph E. Cabrera of Isaac Lopez Integrated School and Mrs. Maribel P. Erestain of Andres Bonifacio Integrated School and to act as observers/evaluators during the conduct of regional teaching demonstrations at Muntinlupa National High School Main, Division of Muntinlupa on December 2, 2014 and at T. Paez Integrated School, Division of Manila on December 5, 2014, respectively.

Please note that all the observations/recommendations of the teachers acting as observers/evaluators, including that of Mr. Cabrera and Mrs. Erestain, were properly documented as they serve as valuable reference by our Office in determining the strengths/challenges of our teachers in integrating the modules of the GCPE TE in the Makabayan and other subjects of students in public elementary and secondary levels under the present K+12 curricula. In June 2007, DepEd issued Memorandum No. 237 on the integration of the modules of the GCPE TE in the mentioned subjects of our students in elementary and secondary levels.
