Dear Dr. Almeda:

We would like to provide you a feedback on the conduct of a "Forum on the Rights of Children with Disabilities" held on November 20, 2014 at B. Legarda Elementary School in Sampaloc, Manila, that children with disabilities who are currently enrolled in said school have not yet availed of Identification (ID) Cards that entitle them 20% discount privilege in the availment of goods and services from private establishments. The students with disabilities were not able to secure the said IDs due to lack of information and coordination by either the school administrator or SPED Teachers from concerned authorities.

The issuance of said ID card is pursuant to Republic Act No. 9442 titled "An Act Amending Republic Act No. 7277, Otherwise Known as the "Magna Carta for Disabled Persons and for Other Purposes." Copy is attached for your ready reference and perusal.

In this regard, may we request your good Office to issue a Memorandum Circular addressed to all school administrators of both public and private educational institutions operating within your territorial jurisdiction informing them of the availment of privileges in accordance with afore-mentioned law.

The applicant student with disability and/or their teacher(s) should coordinate with their respective local government units through the City Social Welfare and Development Office (CSWDO). The requirements for the issuance of said ID include, among others, a (1) Medical Certificate indicating the disability of the applicant, (2) Two (2) pieces 1" x 1" picture, (3) Barangay Certification, and the (4) Accomplished application form.

Should you need further details on the matter, please feel free to get in touch with Mr. Rizalio R. Sanchez, Chief of the Information, Education and Communication Division of this Council who serves concurrently as Acting Regional Programs Coordinator for the National Capital Region, thru Telephone Number 951-5013 or Mobile Number 0920-906-2306.

We look forward to your support in addressing the concerns of the students with disabilities who are enrolled in SPED Centers in the National Capital Region.

Our sincere greetings for the Holiday Season.

Very truly yours,

CARMEN R. ZUBIAGA
Acting Executive Director
