Subject: ORIENTATION WEBINAR ON TALENT SCOUTING OF TEACHER-BROADCASTERS AND CONTENT CREATORS

One of the modalities in teaching and learning delivery is with the use of TV and radio broadcasts. In lieu of face-to-face instruction, the Department of Education (DepEd) shall scout for prospective teacher-broadcasters in the divisions to deliver lessons and relevant content to be aired nationwide.

As part of the talent search, the Offices of the Undersecretaries for Administration (OUA) and Curriculum and Instruction (OUCI), through the Information and Communications Technology Service (ICTS) and Bureau of Learning Delivery (BLD), and in coordination with the Presidential Communications Operations Office (PCOO), shall hold the Orientation Webinar on Talent Scouting of Teacher-Broadcasters and Content Creators on Saturday, 11 July 2020, 1:00-4:00 PM.

The Orientation Webinar aimed to empower, equip and enable our educators to seamlessly transition to television as medium for teaching classes and hosted by Paolo Antonio B. Bediones will cover the following:

1. Overview of the training program and its composite modules – Rationale, Methodology, and Timelines;
2. Requirements - Manpower/Talent and Technical;
3. Performance Evaluation – Framework (20 competencies), Assessment (Scoring and Weights Mechanism); and
4. Expected Results - Television Quality/Standard Output - Teachers overall performance as television presenters with approved TV Lesson.
